The Fate of the Sailing Ship T. F. Oakes Mrs. C. J. Hicks, Auburn, Wash., Who Was Born on the Oakes, Traces the Career of This Ill-Fated Vessel

By STEWART H HOLBROOK.

Sold Ever of three vectors ago Anna Dough Sold Every company and the company of the company and the company of the company of the company of the company and the company of the c

THE END OF A JINXED SHIP.

Above—On March 13, 1898, the T. F. Oakes (renamed the New York) went asho at Halfmoon bay near the Golden Gate. The cargo consisted of silks and lea fre Hongkong. Lett—Mrs. C. J Hicks, Auburn, Wash.

at Hoffmoon boy near the Golden Gate. The cargo consisted of silks on the terrors Hongkong, Led-Hark. C. Hicks, admirm, wash.

He lives at $623 Maryland avenue, and for the Harvest Oscen, towed at unviver after we wash. The second of the terror of the te

Silk Scraps Stolen
by Pet Swallow

O'NE day I was walking around the barn when I learned a little chirp on the ground beside me I turned and saw a tiny swallow not vet feathered out. I picked it up and carried it in the house. I made a little nest for it out of gotton and feathers and up the blad is it. Evry once in a while I went to look in I. Evry once in a while I went to own. I jet it offer, and in course of time it hecame a big bird and would fly in and out of the windows and cut rumbs from whands.
One warm day I was stiting near the winewas considered to come in-But they did hot. After a little window and I went to look little was developed by the continued that will be the continued that was developed by the continued that will be thought in the room tracks were a sharp whitele. Thou does exace, when the windows and cut rumbs from whands.
One warm day I was stiting near the windows and another swallow hover. We noticed the windows and I went to look leaving the whiteled to come in-But they did hot. After a wished to come in-But they did hot. After a wished to come in-But they did hot. After a
wished to come in-But they did hot. After a
wished to come in-But they did hot. After a
wished to come in-But they did hot. After a
wished to come in-But they did hot. After a
wished to come in-But they did hot. After a
wished to come in-But they did hot. After a
wished to come in-But they did hot. After a
wished to come in-But they did hot. After a
wished to come in-But they did hot. After a
wished to come in-But they did hot. After a
wished to come in-But they did hot. After a
wished to come in-But they did hot. After a
wished to come in-But they did hot. After a
wished to come in-But they did hot. After a
wished to come in-But they did hot. After a
wished to come in-But they did hot. After a
wished to come in-But they did hot. After a
wished to come in-But they did hot. After a
wished to come in-But they did hot. After a
wished to come in-But they did hot. After a wishe mother and went to make he wished to

Kidneys and Rheumatism

For Tanks

Doe Guards Fawns When Danger Scented Bis

WHILE deer hunting in the Rocky moun tains of Colorado I was seated beside a huge boulder in a little level-floored valley when nature's wild life put on a little scene in my presence. I value the memory of it be-cause it shows the careful concern of the